

The Ultra Touch keyless entry system can be installed as a stand alone keyless entry system or it can be added to any previously installed remote starter, alarm or keyless entry system. The touch series is universal, it can be added to virtually any make, model or year or vehicle as well as any after market alarm, starter or keyless entry module.

Features:

- Negative door lock output
- Negative door unlock output
- Negative door input for code programming
- User programmable access code
- Status LED (button press confirmation)
- Separate status LED (flashes when locked)
- Stand alone or add on installation